

NEWSLETTER - APRIL 2021

Dear Friends of the Swiss Chamber,

At our virtual Annual General Meeting on the 18 March, we had the great pleasure to welcome and listen to the opening remarks of Ambassador Dr. François Voeffray Peyro. We are all looking forward to continuing our productive collaboration between the Embassy of Switzerland and the Swiss Chamber of Commerce.

I am also very pleased to welcome our newest board member Michael Nyman from the international law firm Evershed Sutherland. The experience and knowledge Michael brings to our Board will be a valuable asset to our organization.

In this newsletter, we have focused extra attention on the Malmö and Gothenburg regions. I would like to take this opportunity to thank our Regional Directors Karin Heri and Leon Nilsson for their great efforts to expand our network in the regions.

The past year can be characterized best by its uncertainty. Businesses are facing unprecedented challenges at the moment both globally and locally. In our upcoming webinar on 6 May, "The global shipping crisis - An insider's view", in collaboration with our member Kuehne+Nagel and the Port of Gothenburg, we will hear about the exceptional times in the logistic industry, which has affected many companies significantly.

To shed more light on the outlook for the business environment, the Swiss Chamber of Commerce has the pleasure of inviting you to the seminar "European Economic Outlook" on 20 May with Reinhard Cluse, Managing Director and UBS Chief Economist for Europe.

Finally, at our webinar "The Öresundsregion – The Gateway to Europe and Scandinavia" on 9 June we will hear about some exciting development projects in the Öresund Region. Speakers from Stadler, UNOPS Global Innovation Center in Lund and Greater Copenhagen Region will give us insight into some of the fantastic projects and operations in the booming region in the south.

Through our webinars, we believe we can provide you with valuable business insights, knowledge and contacts, which builds understanding and relations in business.

We look forward to having you join us and to seeing you online!

Anne Brennwald
Chair of the Swiss Chamber
